Key Details

- Always arrive on-time. We do not hold routines for late dancers.
- Make sure you have all your costumes, shoes, accessories, & belongings after every event.
- Clearly label everything. All lost & found items will be donated June 4th. EDS/Laurel is not responsible for any items.
- Hair & make-up should be complete before arriving to all events.
- Make-up must be dark enough to be seen under the stage lights. Neutral eyeshadow, blush, red lipstick, black eyeliner, mascara & foundation should be worn.
- NO jewelry, nail polish, or underwear on photo days, dress rehearsal or recitals. Underwear will show through the lights. No jewelry includes stud earrings.
- Items to have backstage: safety pins, hairspray, bobby/hair pins, extra tights, water, non-messy peanut free snacks, a large button down shirt to wear over costumes, make-up remover wipes.
- Costumes are irreplaceable

Recital Merchandise

- Recital T Shirts
- Recital Teddy Bears
- Floral Arrangements will be sold at recital

Backstage Parent Volunteers

Our amazing backstage parent volunteers are why EDS Recitals are such a success each year! Thank you- we are so grateful to you!

Responsibilities Include:

- Supervise dressing rooms
- Escort dancers to/from the stage
- Check dancers in/out of the dressing room. Plan on arriving 30-40 minutes before showtime and staying until last dancer in your assigned class has been picked-up

Backstage parent volunteers will be given a wristband that allows them to remain in dressing room through-out the show & backstage when the class they are supervising is performing. Volunteers are responsible for their classes through-out the recital & may not stay backstage watching the show other than when the class they are supervising is performing.

Sign-up will open April 2

Visit our "Recital" page on our website-www.elitedancemaryland.com

Or

Check your email for the link to sign-up!

Each class requires backstage parent volunteers. Once the requested number of volunteers has been met, no other volunteers will be accepted for that class. If you would like to volunteer for another class that needs helpers, please notify Miss Michelle.
michelle@elitedancemaryland.com

What Dancers Do Backstage

Many dancers bring games, books, blankets, activities etc. Parent volunteers are welcome to bring a group activity for their class if they would like to. Water & non-messy peanut-free snacks are permitted backstage. Please label all snacks. We ask dancers do not share snacks in the interest of food allergy safety. Please speak with your dancer about not sharing food/drink. Costumes are irreplaceable. Wearing a button down shirt over the top of costumes backstage is highly recommended.

ELITE DANCE STUDIO RECITAL PROGRAM ADS & WELL WISHES

Placing a Program Ad and/or Well Wish in this year's recital program allows families to celebrate their dancer and their amazing year here at Elite! For business owners, it is a perfect advertising opportunity to share your business with our supportive Elite Dance community. Programs and ads are black & white.

"Program Ready" Program Ad can be submitted via email in either JPG or PDF format.

- "Program Ready" means it is the proper size (see back) & can be used with no further editing or other adjustments needed.
- If an ad is NOT program ready, a $15 art fee will be added to the program ad fee.
- An ad via email will be a higher quality than a hard copy submission.
- If mentioning a dancer's name, please use first and last names.

DEADLINE: April 8 at 9pm

Payment/Emailed ads MUST be received by this deadline.

Email submissions to: michelle@elitedancemaryland.com

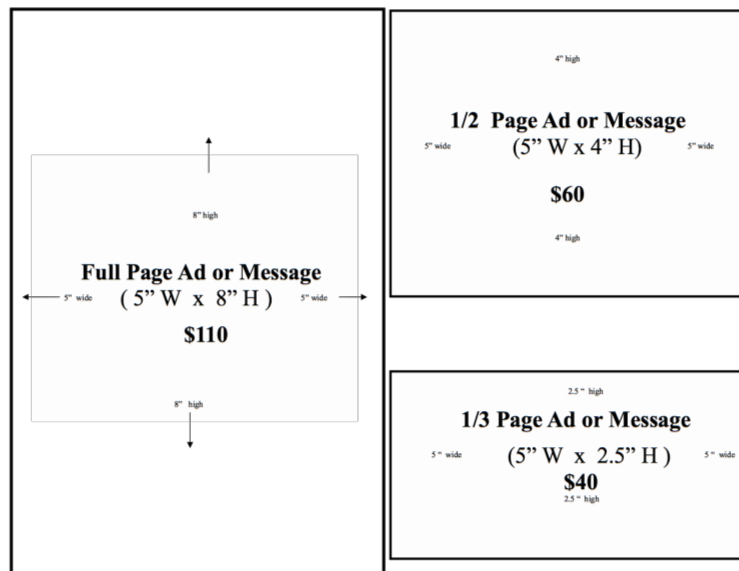

Payments can be made via our website (<http://www.elitedancestudioandsupply.com/recital-2024.html>). When ordering, select the size you would like your ad to be from the dropdown box.

Please note: this year we are unable to accept late submissions under any circumstances. Please email Miss Michelle your ad and submit payment prior to the due date. Thank you for understanding.

Ads submitted without payment will not be sent to print.
